

Cowboys and Legends

Northeast Oklahoma

June 5 - 8, 2018
(4 days - 3 nights)

Tuesday, June 5 Bartlesville, OK

Today we begin our trek to Northeast Oklahoma; the land of Cowboys and Legends. First stop will be at the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City. With more than 28,000 Western and American Indian artifacts, the facility has the world's most extensive collection of American rodeo photographs, saddlery and early rodeo trophies. We depart OKC and make our way to Pawhuska, OK. - population 3,500. Pawhuska has become famous thanks to a present day legend, Ree Drummond; Food Network's Pioneer Woman. There we will visit the Mercantile filled with her cookbooks and merchandise as well as dine on her southern fare for our evening meal. We then travel on to our home for the next three-nights in Bartlesville, OK.

Wednesday, June 6 Bartlesville, OK

After our breakfast at the hotel, we will make our way to celebrate "Oklahoma's Favorite Son," Will Rogers. Claremore is home to the Will Rogers Memorial Museum which houses memorabilia, photographs, and manuscripts pertaining to Rogers' life. We depart the museum and travel a mere 15 miles to Oologah, OK where we will visit the Will Rogers Birthplace Ranch and enjoy a catered lunch before making our way back to Bartlesville. Bartlesville is home to a legend of their own, Frank Phillips, founder of a petroleum company known as Phillips 66. We will enjoy touring the Frank Phillips House and interpretive center to learn more about his humble beginnings. Tonight we dine at Copper Restaurant at the 19-story Price Tower. Imaginatively conceived and elegantly constructed, it is the only fully realized skyscraper designed by Frank Lloyd Wright.

Thursday, June 7 Bartlesville, OK

We begin our day with a city tour of Bartlesville with a stop at Nellie Johnstone No. 1 - the first commercially productive oil well in Oklahoma, opening an era of oil exploration and development in Oklahoma. Next up is Frank Phillips's beloved playground. - Woolaroc. Derived from the words woods, lakes & rock, Woolaroc is the 3,700 acre ranch founded by Frank Phillips in 1925. Today the ranch is home to a wildlife preserve with more than 30 varieties of native and exotic animals. The museum presents one of the most unique collections of Western art and artifacts and most complete collections of Colt firearms.

Returning to Bartlesville, be inspired by the story of Phillips' transformation from a small Bartlesville business to a global energy enterprise at the Phillips Petroleum Company Museum.

Friday, June 8
