

From State Capital to Silos

Austin & Waco

September 25 - 27, 2018

(3 days - 2 nights)

State Capitol Building, with its Goddess of Liberty statue situated above the dome, is an impressive structure with construction having begun in 1882. The exterior is of pink granite and limestone, quarried from nearby Marble Falls and transported by railroad and ox teams. Enjoy a guided tour of the building's interior.

Bob Bullock Texas State History Museum tells the "Story of Texas" by exploring enduring themes of the Lone Star State. Completed in 2001, the three floors of exhibits bring the Texas of yesteryear back to life in a spectacular manner. The museum was named in honor of Bob Bullock who was Texas' 38th Lieutenant Governor and was considered one of the most outstanding Texas political leaders of the 20th Century.

Patty Hundley, former Abilenian, will narrate our city tour highlighting Austin from its early beginnings to the modern Capital City of today.

Magnolia Markets features Joanna Gaines' hand-picked home décor and lifestyle goods featured on her HGTV show, "Fixer Upper." There is something for everyone at the Silos - shopping, lawn games, the garden and a bite to eat from Silos Baking Co.

Homestead Craft Village is Christian agricultural settlement located a few miles outside Waco. The 510-acre homesteading community showcases the work of a community of craftsmen. Filled with hundreds of one-of-a-kind handcrafted items, each craft shop is a working shop, where craftsmen make many different types of items for the home and homestead. Enjoy lunch at Café Homestead where great tasting, sustainable, natural meals with an emphasis on using locally sourced ingredients are served.
