Wed, Feb 26

Jackson, WY

We set out for a once in a lifetime experience today as we board our comfortable “snowcoach” for a full-day through Grand Teton National Park and onward into Yellowstone National Park. Once inside Yellowstone National Park, we travel the groomed trail to Old Faithful, making several stops along the way, with opportunities to get out and walk around. With cameras ready, we scour the winter scenery for wildlife Points of interest may include Moose Falls, Lewis Canyon, Lewis Falls, and West Thumb Geyser Basin. There will be definitely be a stop at Old Faithful to watch the eruption. Our guide will reveal Yellowstone’s secrets as we keep our eyes open for amazing sights around every turn.

Mon, Feb 24

*overnight in DFW Area

This afternoon we board our motorcoach in Abilene and route to the DFW area to overnight in anticipation for tomorrow’s flight to Jackson, WY. We are ready to begin our adventure through nature’s snowy marvels.

tour companies provided roundtrip transportation to and from our hotel. If indoors is your preference, stay at the lodge and relax before hopping on the shuttle for some shopping around Jackson Square. Make sure you snap your photo with those world-famous antler arches as your backdrop.

Fri, Feb 28

Jackson, WY

This morning will be at your leisure before departing for lunch as a group. After lunch, we will visit the National Wildlife Art Museum. This the nation’s only museum dedicated solely to wildlife art. Beautiful works of art in all mediums are both inside and outside of this one of a kind museum. Next we are treated to a horse-drawn sleigh ride through the National Elk Refuge; created in 1912 to protect and provide sanctuary for one of the largest elk herds. Elk make their way to the refuge from mid-December through early April annually.

Sat, Mar 1
