TRAVELERS NEEDING ADDITIONAL ACCOMMODATIONS

Any traveler needing additional accommodations due to a disability must inform Bilbrey Tours at the time the reservation is made. *Bilbrey Tours will make reasonable efforts to accommodate the special needs of tour participants. It is required that persons requiring assistance be accompanied by a companion who is capable of and assumes responsibility for providing the assistance. Neither Bilbrey Tours nor its personnel, nor its suppliers, may physically lift or assist clients into transportation vehicles. If a traveler thinks he or she might need assistance during a tour, he or she should call Bilbrey Tours to determine what assistance might reasonably be given. Bilbrey Tours cannot provide special individual assistance to tour members with special needs for walking, dining, or other routine activities. Travelers should be in good health and must be able to walk reasonable distances. In some areas, travelers may be required to walk on uneven ground, stairs or raised thresholds.

To require a handicap accessible room, the traveler or person sharing the room must have a recognized disability that alters a major life function and requires the use of a mobility device, and the use of the accessible features provided in the handicap accessible room.
